Item 8.01 Other Events.

On November 16, 2020, KalVista Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) announced updated guidance on the data release of its Phase 2 clinical trial to evaluate the safety and efficacy of KVD900 in patients with hereditary angioedema.

The Phase 2 study is an event-driven design that requires patients to treat two eligible attacks. The Company targeted recruitment of 60 patients and ultimately enrolled a total of 68 patients into the study. The target of the study is to provide data from 50 completed patients, and to date 47 patients have completed the two required attacks. Eleven further patients have already completed their first attack treatment.

Following the last patient completion, the Company anticipates that it will require approximately six weeks to complete the necessary activities to record and analyze the final data. The Company intends to disclose the trial results following receipt of the final analysis. The Company will provide further updates as warranted in regulatory filings.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Current Report on Form 8-K contains “forward-looking” statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements can be identified by words such as: “anticipate,” “intend,” “plan,” “goal,” “seek,” “believe,” “project,” “estimate,” “expect,” “strategy,” “future,” “likely,” “may,” “should,” “will” and similar references to future periods. These statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, including the potential impact of COVID-19, that could cause actual results to differ materially from what we expect. Examples of forward-looking statements include, among others, our expectations about the KVD900 clinical trial’s completion and timing of results. Further information on potential risk factors that could affect our business and financial results are detailed in our annual report on Form 10-K filed on July 1, 2020, our quarterly reports on Form 10-Q, when filed, and other filings we may make from time to time with the Securities and Exchange Commission. We undertake no obligation to publicly update any forward-looking statement, whether written or oral, that may be made from time to time, whether as a result of new information, future developments or otherwise.
